A Good Man Gone to Rest.

FALLS OF ROUGH, KY., Feb. 9, 1900. On Monday night January 13th, Bro. Geo. Harl, near Falls of Rough, Grayson county, Ky., passed away and his spirit took its flight to that celestial city, that building of God not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. Mr. Harl, who was a brother of Mr. J. P. Harl, was ailing for several years, but was able to do manual labor all his life up to within ten days of his death. He was taken seriously ill on January 2. Dr. Lynch was called and pronounced his case hopeless from the start. He had the best of attention but all that medical skill and loving hands could do availed not. His time had come: the Lord called and he must go. It was hard for his neighbors and On Monday night January 13th, Bro. go. It was hard for his neighbors and friends, who were many to give him up, but harder still for his loving companion and children to say farawall panion and children to say farewell.

It was our good pleasure to know Bro. Harl for forty years or more. He was born in Meade county, Kentucky, April 18th. 1826, andwould have been 74

Fatal Shot Came from Secretary of State's Office---Evidence Indisputable.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—All the detectives who are here investigating the assassination of Gov. Goebel agree that the fatal shot was fired from one of the windows in the office of the Secretary of State, on the first floor of the Executive building.

Messrs, Arthur and Justus Goebel were confident of this fact some days ago, and Col. T. C. Campbell, the New York criminal lawyer, who is assisting in the detective work going on, is also said to be in possession of indisputable.

dence, Bro, Harl was a hard-working man, a good neighbor and christian. He believed in and practiced the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do to you." He had no enemies and to know him was but to love him. We extend our sympaties to the bereaved family and would say, weep not, for we know he is now at rest. Those of us who have lost companions know best how to sympathize with Sister Harl. We say, thank the Lord for the Spirit of Truth which liberates the soul and makes His people free indeed.
